

Mrs. Olive Veatch, and Miss Christine Nelson, accompanied Mrs. Veatch, daughter Mrs. Evelyn Wagner, and son Frederick to her home in San Diego Monday for a few days' visit.

White and light-colored cottons should be ironed on the right side of the fabric. To avoid shine, iron silks, dark cottons and rayons on the wrong side.

One of the best known individual weekly newspaper slogans is that of the Cameron County Press, published at Emporium, Pennsylvania. The paper's motto is: "The Only Newspaper in the Whole Wide World That Gives a Darn About Cameron County."

One good rule about parties: The more people attending, the easier it is for everyone to find a friendly companion.

ENGAGED

MISS GEORGAN MURPHY

Miss Georgan Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, 2444 Lomita boulevard is engaged to be married to Charles Robert Viers, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrence of Long Beach, the bride's parents announced this week.

No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect is enrolled at Narbonne High School while Mr. Viers, a Navy corpsman, is attending school at the U. S. Naval Hospital, San Diego.

The National Professional Tennis Association wants to outlaw the word "love" for the word "zero" to describe a scoreless tennis match.

The wooden plug, the U. S. Navy places in gun muzzles for protection against dampness is called a tampon or tompon.

Schroeder Home Setting For PTA Council Meeting

First meeting of Gateway PTA Council for the new year, held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Schroeder, 26235 Ozone avenue combined a business meeting with a patio luncheon and social afternoon.

Mrs. H. W. Nansel conducted the meeting, which was highlighted with plans for the year's program and ratification of several new chairmen.

Mrs. R. Rasmussen opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance and Mrs. O. I. Johnson, program chairman, presented the following dates for meetings: On October 3, the council will meet at San Pedro High School; on November 2, at Gardena High School; December 5, at San Pedro High School; January 9, a Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Schroeder on Ozone avenue; February 6, Narbonne High School; March 8, the auditorium of the So. Calif. Gas Co. in San Pedro; April 10, Dana Junior High School; May 1, Narbonne High School; June 5 will be the annual luncheon and installation of officers, the place to be announced at a later date.

Mrs. J. J. Millard, harbor area regional chairman for Tenth District PTA, announced that the annual Tenth District PTA School of Instruction for the harbor area would be held at Narbonne High School September 6 at 9:30 a.m. She also urged those still planning to attend the Tenth District PTA Camp at Redford to get their reservations in for the first or third weeks of the camp. Reservations will be taken by Mrs. Paul Kemp at District headquarters Friday afternoons. The camp period is from July 30 to Aug. 20.

Mrs. Richard Christianson was named student welfare chairman; Mrs. L. B. Robertson, International Relations chairman; Mrs. A. C. Akerson, motion picture chairman and Mrs. I. G. Mayer, chairman of the publicity book and clippings.

Mrs. P. V. Aguirre talked on the value of Community Chest and gave out material for the fall drive. Mrs. John Jure, magazine chairman, asked members to pay for their subscriptions to the PTA publications before September 1 when the rates will increase.

A bounteous potluck luncheon followed in the patio of Mrs. Schroeder's home for association presidents, council officers and chairmen numbering more than twenty.

It is easier to visit friends than to live with them.

TRANSITION STYLED

ADAPTABLE... To paraphrase the poet: When summer comes, can fall be far behind? Designer Toni Owen has fashioned this dress to be equally comfortable under September starlight or July persol. The patio skirt is of Juillard Featheroy (three ounces lighter than corduroy), with side zipper and buttoned waist band.

Progress of Collegians' Tour Is Told

Attendance at a series of musical events in Europe has become a feature of the trip of the Palos Verdes College group, according to word received this week.

In Brussels, Belgium, they attended a performance of the Vienna State Opera and the Vienna Philharmonic as a feature of the Mozart Festival. While in Amsterdam they attended a symphony concert under the direction of George Szell, with the celebrated pianist, Robert Cassadesus, as soloist. This concert was especially interesting for the group, because they were seated on a raised portion of the stage facing the conductor, and looking down on the orchestra.

The group also will attend an opera presentation at the famous Baths of Caracalla in Rome, and musical evenings are planned for Milan, Venice, Florence, and for their second stay in Paris.

The group is studying western European art, with daily study classes, while visiting France, Belgium, Switzerland and Italy.

Mrs. Mumford Is Hostess To Sorority

On Monday evening the Tau Delta Omicron met at the home of Mrs. Clelia Mumford on Annapolis avenue when a brief business meeting was followed by an enjoyable evening of bridge.

Guests of the group were Mmes. Dorothy Smith of Iowa, Earline Staven of Torrance, and her house guests, Valerie Johnson and Theresa Damico, of Chicago.

First and second prize winners were Mmes. Valerie Johnson and Rosentary Pryor.

Mmes. Kay Shelton and Mary Brockway were recipients of lovely anniversary gifts from their secret sisters. Delightful refreshments were served.

To my mind, the best and most faultless character is his who is as ready to pardon the rest of mankind, as though he daily transgressed himself; and at the same time as cautious to avoid a fault as if he never forgave one.—Pliny the Younger
